Greeting . . .

NINETEEN HUNDRED AND TWO

The Pasadena Tournament of Roses Association again extends to Everybody a Happy New Year. . . .

I N tendering this glad greeting, the Association wishes to invite the cooperation of all her friends in the celebration of this first public festival of our greater city. We would keep pace with her growing civic stride. The past is secure; the future we would make even better. Beautiful to the artist eye is our city of homes, favored of nature in all her genial good things, enjoying as we do such triumphant prosperity and progressiveness, with a climate all sunshine and an outlook all fruits and flowers, we desire once more to enter the lists and express to our visiting friends, from far and near, the possibilities and blessings of this lovely Italy of the Pacific.

Especially does the Association desire to thank our citizens for their support and loyalty in the past, and once more she greets friend and stranger with open-hearted welcome and delight.

The best year yet, to one and all.
